

Qingdao No. 1 International School of Shandong Province

October 28, 2011

Dear Parents of QISS Students,

The Halloween Committee is requesting individually wrapped candy , Halloween pencils or other appropriate items to give our students during the Trick-or-Treat on Monday. Please send your donated candy or treats to your child’s homeroom teacher. Thank you in advance for your contributions. We hope to see all parents on Monday, Oct. 31 for our annual Halloween Costume Parade and Trick-or-Treating from 12:30-3:30. (Find our Halloween schedule on page two.)

Young Tindra Lindhe from Ms. Cynthia’s class eagerly began her Chinese studies on Thursday. She was so happy to learn Chinese and Tindra promises to teach her mom some Chinese. Tindra sees herself as an active learner and happily accepted this challenge. We feel confident that she will continue to add to her English language in her everyday classroom activities as she incorporates the Chinese language too.

Our elementary students with help from their parents presented their Jack-o-Lanterns for display outside the main office. Please see the photos below:
